

Rewarding Volunteer Opportunity

VON Hospice Visiting Volunteer

Volunteering with those who are nearing the end of their life can be a very rewarding experience. As a VON Hospice Volunteer, you will be matched with a client to visit weekly, in his/her home. You will provide support, friendship, and a listening ear to your client. You come into your client's life at such a meaningful time and can really make the end of his/her life special.

BENEFITS:

- + you will make a difference to someone who is nearing the end of their life
- + you will get the opportunity to help in the community
- + you will receive education in Hospice/Palliative Care, as well as ongoing support
